It was well aimed in its deadly mission. It fell directly in the middle of the attent and between the first the middle of the street and between the first two double columns of police. Before the officers had time to realize the destruction and death which had been wrought in their ranks, the crowds of anarchists, gathered in front and on either side of them, opened fire with revolvers at almost point blank range. The first volley of the mob was quite fearful in its effects, as was the explosion of the bomb, but the officers did not lose their pres-ence of mind. The pollec chased them until they all disappeared. The explosion of the bomb and the revolver fusilade attracted thousands in the vicinity of Desplaines Street Station. A majority of them had no connection with the anarchists, no sympathy with their lawlessness but with the fatality with their lawlessness, but, with the fatality of curious crowds, they attempted to resist the police when ordered to leave the side-walk in front of the Station. Some of them were seriously injured for their indifference to the orders of the blue-coats. After the anarchists had been disposed of, the police set THEIR WOUNDED AND DYING COMPANIONS. Two of them were found where the bomb ex ploded, both so desperately wounded as to be past hope of recovery. About thirty others were found lying on the pavement in the vi-cinity and suffering from pistol shot wounds in their limbs and bodies, and unable to stir hand or foot. The rioters, too, lay around wounded and dying, but the officers paid no attention to their sufferings at first, only thinking of their own fallen companions. They picked them up and bore those who could not walk or move to the station and assisted all with slight wounds to walk to their homes. The drug stores and saloons about the scenof the battle were soon filled with woun men. The squad-room in the Desplaines Station, half an hour after the shooting, re-sembled a charnal-house. When the order to march to No. 45 Lake street was passed, every man drew his revolver, examined every detail of its working, and his face assumed a stern look which boded no good to the hair-brained anarchista of the Spies-Parsons order. The march to the hall was accomplished in quick time, but upon arrival there it was found to be deserted. The object of the march was to apprehend Parsons and Spies. EXCITEMENT OF THE POPULACE.

The excitement of the general populace is very intense, growing out of the massacre planned and carried out by the small band of anarchists and their blind followers last anarchists and their blind followers last night. The city, outwardly, is very quiet. In the street cars and at every point of gather-in the city the events of last night are being seriously discussed. A large and conservative element in the community, it is proper to say, has hever contemplated that an outbreak of such serious proportions and atroclous character could be meditated by any class in the community. The words heard on every side this morning are of utter and ab-community. The words heard on every side this morning are of utter and abhorrent condemnation of the assault made on the police. The occurrences of Monday and last night are ascribed in the public mind to the teachings and recent utterances principally of three men, August Spies, A. R. Parsons and Samuel Fielden, the speakers of last night. They have been pointed out by nearly avery maps in the city during the by nearly every paper in the city during the past four days, and the tragic culmination on Despiaines street has only appeared to emphasize these warnings. Their arrest has been repeatedly demanded. When the firing began last night Parsons was the only man who was seen to be recognized. He was in a liquor store at the corner of Desplaines and Lake streets, the Socialists' headquarters, within was seen to be recognized. He was in a liquor store at the corner of Desplaines and Lake streets, the Socialists' headquarters, within 150 feet of the point where the deadly bomb was thrown among the ranks of the police. The firing at the police came from the same quarter, and it is surmised that the criminals obtained their guns and made the Socialists' hall their rendezvous, and from whence they proceeded to make their assault. They were concealed behind boxes and barrels on the sidewalk, leveling their guns and firing during the confusion which followed the explosion of the bomb. Parsons was seen in the place, accompanied by his negro wife, for only a moment, and then disappeared with the other anarchists. The police searched for the three men all night, but did not succeed in finding them until after $a$. m. All three were found in a close room in the office of the Arbeiter Zeitung newspaper, as No. 107 Fifth avenue. They were in consultation when the officers came upon them. They exhibited alarm, but made no resistance. They were taken quickly to the Central Police Station one block away, and up to 2 o'clock the public had not been made aware of their arrest. They are kept closely guarded and no one is permitted to see them. It is not known whas, if any, charges have been made against them, and what is the exact policy the city authorities intend to pursue. They have in evidence against Sples his guarded, but inflammatory, utterances in his newspaper, in which he has, within the past few days, urged a dynamite warfare against the police and all the regularly constituted authorities. His direct connection and that of his companions in the events of the past two days appears very clear. Mayor Harrison reasons the his ability to preserve absolute peace in Chicago without outside aid. He argues that the occurrence of last night could not have been foreseen, and was an unpparalleled event in American history. The entire police force is on duty to-day, and its members are apparently in first-class condition. Whi

Thus far to-day no proclamation has been issued forbidding all future gatherings, but it is assumed by the press that this will end, for some time, any assemblings by the red flag advocates.

THE ARREST OF SPIES AND COMPANIONS.

The Arbeiter Zeitung, the organ of the Socialists, is printed in the third story of a building at io? Fifth avenue, the lower floor of which is a lager beer salcon. The editorial rooms are on the second floor and it was there that five Central Station detectives found Spies this morning. Spies is the responsible editor, and when the detectives entered he was in a room with his brother Chris, who is a furniture worker, and Michael Schwab, associate editor of the paper. The Socialists said not a word as the officers threw open the door. Detectives Bonfield and Duffy entered first:

"Are you August Spies?" Bonfield inquired, directing his look as the anarchist.

Spies' thin lips parted in a sickly smile, and he displayed two rows of shining white teeth. He hesitated a moment before speaking, and, with the artful look of a malevolent disposition, gave the officer the full benefit of his tantalizing amile. As length his lips moved, and in a weak and husky voice, in alarming contrast to his smile of simulated indifference, he made answer: "Yes, I am August Spies."

"Well, "replied Bonfield, "we want you—and you, too," said the officer, turning to spies' brother and Editor Schwab.

The latter was deathly white and his hands trembled as he put on his hat. August Spies was inclined to be ugly. Duffy asked him his name.

"I don't think its any of your business,"

The polies are rapidly collecting evidence against the chief conspirators among the Anarchists. They searched Spies' office this morning and found absolute proof that the inflammatory of culiars mentioned in these dispatches and headed, "Revence, Workinomers and headed, "Revence, Workinomers To Ames!" and another headed "ATTENTION, WORKINOMER!" were found with the form in type. Those were taken possession of and locked up at the Central Station as evidence that Spies and Schwab directly incited the riot and bloodshed. The anarchist, Parsons, has not been captured, as first reported. Hels still in hiding. Schwab was mistaken for him when the first arrests were made. Inspector Bonded raised Zeph's Hall, corner of Lake and Despiaine streets, this morning. Here were found a lot of maketer red fings and German books expounding socialistic doctrines. Nearly $10,000 has already been subscribed on 'Change for the families of the wounded and dead officers.

There is no truth in the rumor of the killing of poilee officers this morning on the tracks of the Ft. Wayne road. Shortly after noon the police made another raid on the office was discovered several boxes of dynamite and a number of red fiags and incondiary banners. They were all paled.

MAYOR HARRISON'S PROCLAMATION.

MAYOR HARRISON'S PROCLAMATION.

It has finally been decided by the Mayor to issue a proclamation. This document will call on all persons to keep off the streets after dark and will warn people not to gather in crowds on the streets or in vacant lots.

SOCIALIST DEN RAIDED.

Inspector Bonfield raided No. 54 West Lake street about 10 'clock. This is a notorious resort for Socialists. One of the rooms was occupied by freight-handlers. The police cleared the place.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

The twenty-five printers arrested in the Arbeiter Zeitung Building were arraigned before Justice Meech and charged with murder. Their cases were continued until May 14.

SELURIE OF GUNS.

The police raided an establishment kept by O. P. Bissell, at No. 18 South Clark street, this afternoon, carrying away ninety guns and revolvers. It was declared that Bissell had been supplying Socialists with guns.

EXPLODING CAPTURED DYNAMITE.

Ball was refused. The dynamite found in the Arbeiter Zeitung office this morning was, about noon to-day, taken to the Lake front and exploded. The effect was terrible. A piece about the size of a hen's egg was placed in a coupling link and exploded. The neavy piece was scattered into fine bits.

Mayor Harrison, with several detectives, visited the Arbeiter Zeitung office to-day and held a consultation with Oscar Neibe, who said he did not belong to the office, but was employed to get out the paper. The Mayor told him that the paper would not be issued until inspected by Mr. Hand, whom he would send for that purpose. Neibe promised that nothing of an infammatory nature should appear in the paper. Before the paper was lasued however, a raid was made upon the printing office and twenty-five printers were arrested.

THE CORONER'S INQUEST.

An inquest upon the body of Police Officer will result in the indictment of Spies and other anarchists for murder.

At 30 'clock Officer Barrett was reported dying, and there appears to be little hope of saving the lives of Officers John Miller, Jacob Hansen, Nelson Hansen and Thomas Reddin. The remaining twenty-four officers in the County Hospital wards all have a show for recovery, but some are extremely low. Two ricters, Emil Lutz and John Lepiane are in avery critical condition, and it is expected they will die. The names of the following persons at the hospital suffering from wounds did not appear in the earlier accounts:

Mob Violence Again Asserts Itself in Chi-cago—Attack on a Drug Store.

OHICAGO, May 5.—Mob violence again asserted itself in the southwestern part of the city this morning. About 9 o'clook groups of men, women and children began to gather at the corner of Eighteenth street and Center avenue, and these groups soon aggregated 3,000 persons. One of the corners is the store of Samuel Rosenfelds. It became apparent that the owner of the store was the object against whom the crowd was bent on venting its spite. The men surged toward the building with threats and violent language.

"Tear down the place," they yelled.

"Kill Rosenfeldt," "He's a police spy," and other like expressions came from the throats of all.

The fary of the mob was directed against the druggist because he had a telephone in the store, and they had an idea that Rosenfeldt was giving "tips" to the police. The thoroughly frightened druggist took his family into the upper part of the house. Some police officers in the vicinity telephoned to the Hinman Street Station. A wagon load of police were soon on the scene, and taking Rosenfeldt and his family into the wagon conveyed them to the station, leaving a guard in the vicinity.

The police resurned to the scene and succeeded in dispersing the mob. ing the mob.

Large Accessions to the Strikers in Cincin-

About 1,200 employes have gone out, demanding eight hours and full pay. They have quietly paraded the streets. The striking furniture men have adopted emphatic resolutions against the murderous work of Socialists in Chicago. eight composed of delegates from the Knights of Labor, Central Labor Union and local brewers have been visiting the breweries of the city and presenting an agreement which the proprietors were expected to enter into with their men. The agreement is modeled after one recently presented to the boss brewers of New York. The demands, stated at considerable length in a paper furnished the brewers, provide that all employes of the breweries shall be union men, with the exception of one foreman, and that no man recommended by a saloonist shall be employed. The sons of brewers shall not be admitted to the union. Every workman in the brewery shall be promoted in rotation in the various branches. Should any prove incompetent the man following him shall occupy the place and the man displaced shall return to his former position. An examining committee is provided for, to be composed of two union men selected by the workmen, which shall see that only worthy and experienced men are employed in the cellars, formenting rooms, etc. A workman may resume work after any sickness that does not exceed two months. To prevent wholesale discharges of men in the fall employers are required to work them in alternate gangs. Men expelled from the union shall be discharged. The number of apprentices is regulated. A day's work shall consist of twelve hours, with two hours for meals. The time of changing watches where two sets of men are worked is fixed. Six days shall constitute a week. A scale of wages ranging from $10 to $15 per week is made. Beer is to be furnished the workmen free. Elaborate provisions are also made for arbitration. A meeting of the Brewers' Association was held at 2:30 p. m. to consider and answer the above. At 4 p. m. no decision had been reached, but it was evident from the tone of the deliberations that the demands

That they deemed it advisable to strenuously oppose the diotations of the Amaigamated Trades Council in regard to having none but Union men belonging to the Amaigamated Trades Council impleyed on any buildings wherein they were interested. After some discussion it was decided that no member of the association be fallowed to pay his journeymen more than 35 cents per hour. A committee of seven was appointed to see that plumbers who had work on hand demanding immediate attention were assisted by other members of the association. Nearly all the master plumbers are practical men, and the majority of them will be busy to-day assisting each other in the performance of urgent work. Advertisements will be sent to-day to the large cities for good plumbers, who will be assured that they will be taken care of after the striking for shorter hours, has a membership of 187. Journeymen Plumbers Strike.

The plumbers who are employed by the Siegel Gas Fixture Company made a demand for the eight-hour system, and were told on Saturday that the proprietors would do what-Saturday that the proprietors would do whatever the other houses agreed to do. Upon the announcement this morning of the decision of the Master Flumbers' meeting last night, forty journeymen in the Siegel, when seen by a reporter to-day, said that the men were better paid than most other trades, and while they put in ten hours' time they really worked but about eight. Unless they returned new men would be brought from other cities, but he hardly thought that necessary, as the men themselves saw that their demands were unjust, and the majority of them would go back to work now if it were not for the union.

The committee of master plumbers appointed to look after such contract work as was pressing were investigating the matter to-day, and all work of a character not to be delayed would receive first attention even if the master plumbers had to do the journeywork themselves.

The Ramlose Shoe Factory.

The strike at the shoe factory of C. E. Ram-lose is still on with little prospect of immediate settlement. The men have asked for an advance of 20 per cent in wages, to take effect immediately. The proprietor has offered to give the increase after certain contracts made on the old scale are filled, which will take about two weeks. He says the statement that the men are among the lowest-paid in the city is true, but offers in extenuation the fact that the work is of an inferior class, and brought in direct competition with convict labor. It is Mr. Ramlose's intention to hold out against the strikers.

The manufacturer must come in direct contact with the customers to know just what they want. Come and see the correct styles—mark the difference in the make and fit of our garments as compared with other houses that are obliged to buy from jobbers—and note the low prices at which these goods can be offered on account of saving all middle profits.

AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT. La's (Sixth and Walnut)-Moore and Vivis

Our Merchants' Exchange could very properly express its appreciation of the kindness of the Iowa Congressmen and Wisconsin lumbermen who go out of their way to prevent our building a non-monopoly bridge at St. Louis.

Sr. Louis has frequently furnished the country with valuable political ideas. It continues to do so when a Democratic Board of Police Commissioners promotes a Republican Captain to the well earned distinction of Chief of Police.

Mr. CHARLES A. DANA testified before the Telephone Committee that he considered CLEVELAND a bad Democrat, and tried to defeat him. As Mr. Dana did his utmost to elect the Republican ticket, he should have told the committee what kind of a Democrat he considers Mr. BLAINE.

For the week ending May 1, Chicago's Clearing-house Exchanges showed a decrease of 10.9 per cent as compared with the business of the corresponding week last year, while the St. Louis clearings showed a decrease of only 1.7 per cent. This was before the railroad strike in St. Louis was declared off, and before 65,000 wage-workers went out on a riotous strike in Chicago.

"BRITONS hold your own," is the refrain which rounds up every stanza of TENNYson's opening ode for the Colonial Exhibition in London. A more superfluous admonition was neveraddressed to British auditors. There may be no truth in the widely accepted theory that the human stomach and intestines develop an abnormal capacity and longitude in England, but the Briton's first instinct is to hold his own, and the next is to regard as his own all that he can get by force.

THE Fort Worth shooting took place at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and the Post-DISPATCH was on the streets at 3:45, with a full report, including names of the killed and of the wounded. In Chicago a dynamite bomb-throwing occurs in the heart of the city at half-past 10 at night, and the lumbering morning papers this morning have nothing but a few disconnected bulletins sent by the Associated Press, without even a line of special. When prompt and complete service is needed the people look to the Post-Dispatch.

TENNYSON tells the colonists that there will be no more of the unprophetic rule which meaning the United States. The colonies being too remote for effective coercion are conceded all the home rule they want as the only sure plan of keeping them "welded in one imperial whole." By pursuing the same course toward Ireland the Englishmen of to-day might show one instance in which they had voluntarily abandoned the sin of those "unprophetic rulers," their fathers-one case in which they had ceased to govern by cruel and relentless. force while they felt able to continue that kind of government.

SENATOR LELAND STANFORD is the millionaire and monopolist whose letter on the right of railroads to charge "all the traffic will bear" and to discriminate as the managers may choose, surprised the whole country some years ago. As the proprietor of a seat in the Senate he has recently made a surprising speech. In the fight against State regulation of railroad charges, the railroad people contended for and obtained a Supreme Court decision that any State regulation of the charges on inter-State transportation was a regulation of inter-State commerce, and therefore an exercise of a power speech against the Cullom bill Senator STANFORD takes the ground that a regulation of transportation charges is a regulation of carriers, not a regulation of the erce they carry, and is therefore not oluded in the power of Congress to inter-State commerce. The Supreme Court long ago decided that the power to regulate commerce between the ourse and transportation, and that this alpment in one State to the place of con-STANFORD's class and habits of mind we can expect nothing on this subject that savors of law logic, public policy or a decent regard for common justice.

THE ANARCHIST CRIME.

The Anarchists of Chicago have pro eded from words to deeds. After much talk and threat of dynamite they have tried one of their coward experiments on numan life, and have tried with success gainst the citizen police of Chicago the murderous bomb which had approved its effectiveness in slaving a Czar.

The crime will evoke an outburst of horror and indignation from all the people of the United States. The bravest and freest nation on the earth has no sentiment but condemnation for murder in any shape, and the Anarchist crime of Chicago is peculiarly brutal and revolting.

It should have the immediate effect of causing a separation between the decent and law-abiding workingmen who seek to improve their condition by lawful means and the miscreants who welcome every chance of bloodshed. Fortunately the latter are few in number. They are nearly all strangers to our laws, to our liberties and to our social system. When they are expelled from the ranks of honest labor and compelled to stand by themselves and depend on their own strength they will appear miserably weak and contemptible

Left to itself their cause will dwindle away and die out in this country, which gives it no support. It is the product of misery and despair, of poverty, hunger, tyranny, over-crowding, of centuries of subjection and of generations of inherited hatred of society. Our laws are amply sufficient to deal with its crimes, and our free and prosperous social conditions may be freely relied on to choke its baneful growth, and to rid us of serious apprehensions as to future dangerous excesses.

By Telegraph to the Post-Disparch.

New York, May 5.—The World says to-day: "The display of red flags in Chicago labor emeutes by the misguided people, who think that liberty in this country means license to destroy, has the same effect of solidifying the common-sense element, which holds to the doctrine that human happiness is based on peace and order. The anarchist has no more place in this system of ours than the wolf in a sheep-fold. Workingmen should beware of the red flag—the symbol of blood and disorder—and have no affiliation with those who make labor troubles a pretext to rob, deface and revolutionize."

THE SUN.

The Sun says: "In looking back over the history of the Missouri Pacific strike, it occurs to us that Mr. Hoxie would have been just as well off to-day if he had had the politeness to offer chairs to the gentlemen of the labor cause when they called on him at his office." The TRIBURE.

The Tribune says: "The difference between Jefferson Davis and the rest of the Democratic leaders is that he is not going to lose by saying what he thinks."

The Times says: "We have the deepest sense of the value, and even of the absolute necessity of organization for the workingmen. So far from thinking that the Missouri Pacific strike tells against such organization, we believe it proves its necessity. The remedy for such excesses as we have seen, is not in abandoning the organization, but in developing and perfecting it, and putting it in shape where it can do good and check evil."

PEOPLE'S FORUM. Profit-Sharing.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch. eminent authorities sanctioned it, but suc cessfulenterprises have grown more successful under it. The great foundry and iron works of M. Godin, at Guise, France, has earned $1,000,000, or 100 per cent on its capital, in the last five years. Godin had a prosperous business of thirty years' standing when he adopted profit-sharing fitteen years ago. He retains full charge of the great business, receives swalary, interest on his money, a share of the profits on his capital, and 12 per cent of the net profits. The remainder is divided by regular percentage upon the wages paid, the workers being divided into classes according to length and quality of service. It has made his men better and more careful workers. They may and do leave their dividends in the business, and draw interest and dividends the same as paid to the principal capital.

The same plan has been followed with slight modification by several manufacturers is this country and many more are now considering it, There is no difficulty whatever in applying it to any work for wages in a productive capacity. Wherever wages are paid and capital employed with a view to profit it can be applied as regularly and as free from complications as the payment of wages itself. This being done upon any reasonable basis there can be no danger of strikes. Every man is a small proprietor, and he will not destroy his own business. More than this, it will have an equalizing tendency. In duly years no dividends will be divided; in fush times the rapidly increasing surplus will be partly paid out and its value consumed—thus relieving the excessive production, which reacts and creates stagnation. Very truly, St. Louis, May 5, 1886.

The Firemen's Grievaness.

The Grievance Committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen returned here this morning from DeSoto, Mo., where they went last Monday night to investigate the dis-charge of members of their order. Sargeant, chief officer of the Brotherhood, moved his headquarters to day from Hurst's to Barnum's Hotel, where the Grievance Committee is located.

To a Post-Dispatch reporter this morning. Chief Sargeant stated that the Grievance Committee had nearly completed its investigations and would be ready to make its report by this evening. After going over the material collected by the committee, Mr. Sargeant will be prepared to speak more intelligently, and the officials of the Gould roads will be communicated with in regard to the reinstatement of such of the men as were wrongfully discharged. A letter asking for an audience as employes of the road will be sent to Mr. Hoxie this evening by the committee and a conference very likely arranged for some time to-morrow, or at the earlisst convenience of all parties concerned.

Chief Sargeant is a very careful and conservative leader, and will take no steps in the matters now pending between the road and the firemen which have not been fully considered. When asked what the result of the committee's investigation was, whether it was very one-sided by any means. In some instances the men were wrong; in others they were not, and I think that both the road and the employes will make concessions in settling the matter. The employes will ask only justice. The investigations of the committee have been very thorough, and go into every detail of the different cases. In instances where there was the least room for doubt, affidavits have been obtained and the parties most concerned placed upon oat. I do not apprehend any difficulty in reaching a settlement and feel certain that all differences can be amicably adjusted."

The Grievance Committee and Mr. Sargent were in conference all day in Room 15 at Hotel Barnum.

At the Missouri Pacific Shops,

Out of 190 strikers who applied for work at he Missouri Pacific shops at Summit avenue the Missouri Pacific shops at Summit avenue yesterday only twenty-two were engaged. About half were given immisdiate employment and the others promised places to-day. Superintendent Bartlett informed the men that the company would not employ as large a force as it had previous to the strike, and that they did not need many new men at present. At East St. Louis it is estimated that about 1,000 men went out. Of these the roads will take back about 75 per cent, and the balance will have to seek a livelihood at something else. At a meeting of the strikers it was stated that the kindights of Labor would support all strikers who were not of the strikers it was stated that the Knights of Labor would support all strikers who were not taken back for a period of two months.

At the general offices of the Missouri Pacific it was learned that no applications for work had been made at the shops to day. Messrs. Bariett, master mechanic, and Hodge, master car builder, are out on the road. A general feeling exist in favor of re-employing the old men as fast as there are vacancies, and this the strikers were given to understand yesterday, when the first lot of men made application.

THE NEW BISHOP.

REV. ETHELBERT TALBOT. NEW 10kk, May 5.—Poor little Caroline Terbass spent seventy-six years and seven months trying to reach a woman's estate, and then gave up the vain endeavor and died. Freakish nature had made an uncompleted job of her.
Up to her twelfth year she was apparently like other girls; then she suddenly stopped, never to grow again.
Aithough living some years beyond the average of human life the girl never became a woman, and when the Coroner called to view the remains, she having died without medical attendance, he found the body of a girl of 11, topped by the head of maturity and the face of age. For many years Miss Terbass was a familiar figure on Fifth avenue, in the neighborhood of the reservoir, and many peopie talked about the child woman who lived at Forty-first street. Nobody could guess her age, for there was not a light streak in the dark tresses which she could nearly walk upon, they being four feet long, while she was only a feet 3 inches in height. The kindiy face was somewhat sharp and aquiline; but it had few of the wrinkles belonging to her great age. Sometimes people a block away heard her shrieks and wondered. They did not know how very sensitive her skin was, which caused her to cry out when simply touched and to yell when washed. Three sisters had grown to tall, fine-looking women, while little Oaroline remained at eleven's mile-stone. One of them, Mrs. Louisa Burnam, was married, but none of them was unfaithful to her sisterly trust. They cared tenderly for the brightwitted little freak, and when, over a year ago, her cries made her something of a nuisance, they moved to a less thickly populated neighborhood in East Seventieth street. For about a year the sensitiveness extended to the nails, which Caroline has not allowed to be touched. Lastely she has been somewhat demented, and she died suddenly yesterday before Dr. Frank O. Manning, the family physician, could be called.
Coroner Messemer took the case, there being undoubtedly great medical interest in it, and performed an autopsy yes The reverend gentleman whose picture is herewith presented will, it is generally under stood, be chosen to succeed the late Rt. Rev. C. F. Bobertson, as Bishop of Missouri. Rev.

A resolution commentatory of Chief Harrigan's efficient services while connected with the department, and expressing the best wishes of the members of the Board for his success in the office he is about to assume was passed, although Gen. Campbell. Sergts. Joyce and Campbell each received the votes of two members of the Board for Captain, but Mayor Francis cast the deciding vote in favor of Joyce. Capt. Anton Huebler's record which in anticipation of his appointment as Chief was published in last evening's Post-Disparch, is well known, and his selection as Chief is generally considered the best that could have been made. Capt. Joyce has been on the force since 1865 and has a splendid record. He will be placed in charge of the Second District, temporarily, but eventually will be given control of the Third District, Sergt. Jones walked a beat around the Merchants' Exchange for years, and Sergt. Hoagland, who went on the force in 1879, served most of the time in the Third District.

'a circus is coming to Princeton' is always for it generally portends some fun between the two lower classes, and it is always a tight race to see which class can secure the clowns, by to see which class can secure the clowns, by bribes, to "gag" the other. So this year, when Frank A. Robbins advertised his big circus, there was a grand stampede on the part of the Sophomores and Freshmen to secure the ervices of the show mirth makers. The freshmen were too sharp for their enemies, however, and when the Sophs. implored the clowns for their services they showed written constracts with the boys of '80. They tried to buy over the tunny men to their side, but in vain. They diad to asknowledge they were left, and about a third of the class took it good naturedly enough, but the others were mad. They swore at the Freshmen who had honestly beaten them as their own game. But that was not all. They were "bored" so hadly that they went to Mr. Robbins and said they would beyout the circus if he didn't make the clowns come over to

ATERRIBLE ADVENTURE.

A Mother and Her Babe Down in a Well

For Hours.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

HORRELEVILLE, N. X., May 5.—France
French and his family live on the Old Mines farm in the town of Bradford, this county.

In the farm yard is a deep well with a low ourb, the water being drawn up by an oldfashioned sweep. On Saturday all the family were absent from home except Mrs. French and her 5-year-old son. Farmer French came home at noon. There was no one in the house. He went into the kitchen and on the table was a slate on which was written, in a hasty scrawl:
"Baby and I are in the well." French ran to the well. Looking down he saw his wife in the water, clinging to the wall, but apparently dead. Alva Horris, a neighbor, was passing at the time and responded to the farmer's cries for help. Morris let himself down in the well and fastened a rope around Mrs. French and

Two empty flat cars which were next to the locomotive were completely demoished, and two box cars were thrown sidewave across the track and their trucks broken. Larry Quirk, engineer, and O. P. Anson told Umpire Gaffney that he would protest yesterday's game, and when Gaffney was asked on what decision, he said: "Oh, I don't mind what Anson says. He is always buildozing anyhow, and he seems to forget that my position is a hard one." Gaffney's umpiring yesterday was almost faultloss.

About overworking Kilroy. Barnie says: ampiring yesterday was aimost faultiess.

About overworking Kliroy, Baraie says:

"Kliroy is young, ambitious and capable of pitching every other day, and why shouldn't he be able to do the work with one day's rest between? He is unlike pitchers who have had years of trial, and have become worn out in some respects, and I am capable of discovering when the 'kid' is being overworked. He is fond of the sport and anxious to pitch."

Nothing of special interest transpired at the Ramblers' monthly meeting at the Planters' House last evening. The subject of the coming division meeting L. A. W. and the tour with the Chicago cyclists was briefly discussed. The matter of the DeSota trip was brought up and it seemed to be the sentiment of the meeting that the run from there occur on May 33.

The Duke of Hamilton's bay filly, Miss Jummy, by Petrarch, out of Lady Portland by The Primate, was so named as a delicate compliment to the Duke of Portland, who among his intimates is known as "Jumbo," and as the filly is out of Lady Portland, His Grace of Hamilton hit upon the name of Miss Jummy. She was bred by the Duke of Hamilton and is trained at Newmarket by R. Marsh, who also trains for Lord Hastings, Mr. Leopold de Rothschlid, Mr. Broderick Cloet and others. As a two-year-old Miss Jummy ran in seven races, of which she won three. She was first in four, but on her last appearance during the Houghton meeting she finished first for a post sweepstakes of £400, but an objection for not carrying the right weight was sustained and Mr. Houldsworth's Sunrise got the stakes and bets, to the great disgust of her backers, especially her owner, who put "a thousand" on her just before the start. Miss Jummy made her debut at Goodwood, where she ran unplaced for the Richmond Stakes. At the First Newmarket October meeting ahe won the Buckingham stakes, with Argo Navissocond, and the Rutland Stakes. At the second October meeting she won the Clearweil stakes, but was unplaced for the great Challenge stakes, won by Modwens. She was also unplaced to Ormonde for the Duke of Hamilton's three day of the rocent Craven meeting Miss Jummy won the old-fashioned Riddlesworth stakes, on which occasion the Field described her as "a siashing fine mars, with two good ends, though somewhat light in the middle." Like the most of the Duke of Hamilton's horses, Miss Jummy is heavily engaged, being in the Derby, Epsom Grand Prize, the Oaks, the Grand Prix de Paris and the Doncaster St. Leger and a dozen other events at Ascot Goodwood, Newestel and at the Newmarket autum meetings. She is also in the Eclipse stakes of £10,000 at Sandown in July. Mr. W. J. Gordon of Cleveland, O., has purchased th

Catton Comes Home.

Billy Catton, the billiard player, arrived in the city this morning from his long visit to Hot Springs. Billy says that he is feeling splendidly and that the Springs have done him a world of good. Billiards in Hot Springs, says Mr. Catton, are on the ragged edge. In the first place there are no tables there and in the second place the cue resemble whiphandles more than anything else. In reference to a prospective game with Louis Shaw Catton said that he was willing to play Shaw or any one else in the city either straight rail or fourteen inch bank line for anything from $20 to $500. The little man will hold on to his present position at Mussey's and will not be disturbed by Schnefer's presence. Jake is expected to arrive daily and will have an interest in Mussey's Hall.

There are two railroad meetings going on at the Southern to-day. J. W. Midgely, Commis-sioner, L. A. Emerson, G. F. A. of the Missouri Pacific, Thos. Miller, G. F. A. of the Burlington & Missouri River, and Frank Milli-gan, G. F. A. of the St. José Grand Island met about 11 o'člock to talk over Nebraska live stock rates. Later S. B. Hynes Nebraska live stock rates. Later S. B. Hynes G. F. A. of the Southern Kansas; J. S. Leeds, of the Santa Fe; M. L. Sergeant, of the Fort Scott and Gult; W. H. Newman and L. A. Emerson of the Missouri Pacific, got together and arranged freight rates to and from Missouri and Mississippl River points and Chicago to points in Kansas. Neither of these meetings are of any public importance, unless a disruption occurs which is anything but probable.

An important meeting of three of the committees of the Bianchard Pool will be held tomorrow in Chicago to adjust short-point rates differences. The Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis committees will get together and fix up matters. Those leaving here to-night will be; Messrs, M. Knight, Wabash; H. W. Hibbard, Vandalia; F. A. a Military Resort.

There was a somewhat interesting time last night at the Ranche, a liquor resort one mile north of Jefferson Barracks. The place is a rendezvous for soldiers at the post and is kept by Henry Meyer and wife. For some time past the United States authorities have had reason to believe that the Meyers were in the habit of taking in uniforms to pay for bar bills incurred by the soldiers, and afterwards disposing of them to second-hand dealers. Last sight United States Deputy Marshah Wheeler and Owens swooped down upon the Ranche, and created some little excitement among the inmates. They arrested Meyer and his wife and brought them up to town, not without some show of opposition on the part of Meyer, who objected to the presence of the Government officers. The place was searched and some uniforms found. This morning ExGov. T. O. Fletcher appeared for Meyer, and preliminary aramination was waived, ball being furnished by Mr. Krause, the Carondeles brower. The matter will come before the Federal Grand Erry, now in applica-

THE PREMIER YIELDS.

A SUBPRISING RECONCILIATION BETWEEN GLADSTONE AND CHAMBERLAIN.

The Greek Question—Foreign News.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

Loxdox, May 5.—I learn from a conversation with several politicians in the coursels of the Government that the course Irish matters will take is now fairly clear. Certainly there is a rather surprising reconciliation between Gladstone and Chamberiain. This is almost accomplished by the yielding of the former on several points. The second reading of the bill, theresore, may be regarded as practically certain, but there will be little more than an abstract resolution in favor of home rale, limited by the distinct condition of the retention of the Irish members at Westminsjer. Chamberlain and his followers will vote for this, and it will therefore have a large majority. My information is to the effect that it will then be withdrawn, or as it is called "hung up," till

THE GREEK QUESTION has become a positive farce. It has been described as extremely critical every day for a month. The Powers have threatened again to do all sorts of dreadful things. To-day the first special telegram in the Times from Athen stowed their top hampers. The general opin-ion is that Greece will yield, but it is not cer-tain the Powers are sufficiently united for

EDITOR DANA AND THE "PAN,"

His Testimony Before the Telephone Com mittee—His Opinions.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5.—Among the witnesses examined by the Telephone Committee yesterday was Mr. Chas. A. Dana, editor of the New York Sun, who explained how he had refused the Pan-Electric revelations offered him by E. N. Hill, saying he did not

The Chair? Do you refer to Senator Harris?
Witness: No, sir.
Chairman: To the Rogers?
Witness (dryly). They are poets.
Witness further stated that no articles had been published in the Sun at the instance of the officers or individuals of the Bell Company. They had been published without solicitation or suggestion from any quarter.
No MONEY HAD BEEN PAID, and he owned no stock in the Bell Company or in any kindred company.
Mr. Boyle saked if the witness had conferred with the Bell attorney on the general subject.

Dickerson, an old friend, on the scientific question.

"I have had quite a dispute with him on the subject," Mr. Dana added.

"And yet your views seem to have been alike," remarked the Chairman.

"They are more alike now than they were at that time," replied the witness. "Mr. Dickerson, from the first—when the Interior Department proceedings were pending—held that a Government suit would be brought, while I denied it, saying that no President endowed with good sense and a conscientious uprightness would allow such a suit to be brought."

endowed with good sense and a conscientious uprightness would allow such a suit to be brought."

Witness further said that he considered the matter generally as a kind of scandal in which the Executive of the United States is made auxiliary. He had never fully approved of Cleveland's civil-service principles, but there was nothing about that of a scandalous nature. It was bad politics and bad patriotism. But the Pan Electric was of a different nature. The scandal, he said, consists in using the Attorney-General—making him a stockholder and then using the Department of Justice to promote purposes of private speculation.

Mr. Oates: Are you aware that he became a member of the association long before he was appointed Attorney General?

Witness: He was a member, as I understand of imitating the example of Gen. Lefevre and others who sent back this gratuity, and that, I think, is not a proper proceeding. It is merely a question whether a public officer should be interested in an establishment on which he may be required to vote in his official capacity.

Mr. Oates inquired if the witness did not know that the attorney-General would have been away and allowed such a thing to be done.

"Suppose he did not know that the application was to be made?" suggested Mr. Oates.

"He ought to have known that there was a mignty sharp set of fellows ground," responded the winness. "The Attorney-General should not have known that there was a mignty sharp set of fellows ground," responded the winness. "The Attorney-General should not have known that there was a mignty sharp set of fellows ground," responded the winness. "The Attorney-General should not have linewei it. He should have resigned rather than have had anything to do with it. The case seems to be entirely similar to the old Credit heads of the state of the winness of the state was a mignty sharp set of fellows fround," responded the winness. "The Attorney-General should not have linewei it. He should have resigned rather than have had anything to do with it.

"That is what I think," replied Mr. Dana. Mr. Millard: He should have discontinu Mr. Dana: He should have smashed it.

but there will be little more than an abstract resolution in favor of home rule, limited by the distinct condition of the retention of the Iriah members at Westminster. Chamberlain and his followers will vote for this, and is will therefore have a large majority. My information is to the effect that it will then be withdrawn, or as it is called "bung up," itli max year. In the meantime public opinion will mature. Other much needed teginiation can be accomplished. The country will have the pleasing spectacle of a well-behaved floure of Commons, Gladstone will have pleasty of time to recast his scheme with everybody's help. Morley will do lab best to stop evictions, Parnell will make things as pleasant as possible, and everybody, politician or not, will be thankful to escape a dissolution.

A GENERAL ELECTION IS INFOSSIBLE. Of course, should there be any, there is a certainty of matters taking this direction. I give this statement with reserve, but it is certainty the opinion to-day in high quarters. A Parilson, enterly paper is published of seventy-six pages, containing correspondence from Ire-land in response to Gladstone's invitation several months ago. The consequences are classed under ast heads, as follows: first, church bodies; second, municipal bodies; disconding the resolution. The following is a summary of the opinion expressed for Gladstone: The Irrish Catholic bishops, Dublin Municipal Commissioners, Town Comissioners' of Cashel, corporation of Wateford, Tosty-three other municipal bodies, Grandjury of Killaraey and six other Grandjuries of towns the Athy Board of Guardians, the Limis Board of Guardians, the Ennis Board of Guardians, Against Gladstone, the General Freshyterian Assembly, Dublin Minicipal Commissioners, Town Comissioners' of Cashel, corporation of Wateford, Tosty-three other municipal bodies, Grandjury of Killaraey and six other Grandjuries of towns the Athy Board of Guardians, the Limis Board of G

There was a celebration of the twenty-fifth There was a celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Dr. and Mrs. Rhodes last evening, by the members of the St. Mark's Evangelical Lutherian Church, of which he has been the pastor for the past fifteen years, beginning when there was a membership of only fifteen persons, and continuing his ministrations uninterrupted up to the present day, where they occupy a handsome edifice on Bell street and count a membership of over 400. In spite of the inclement weather there were over 500 persons present, and a dethere were over 500 persons present, and a de-lightful programme was carried out under the direction of Mr. Froelich, the musical director of the choir of the musical director of the choir of the Church. "John Anderson My Jo" was beautifully sung by Miss Clars Urquhardt. Another pretty and appropriate selection, a duet, was sung by Misses Mullen and McGuinness. An appropriate selection was rendered in fine style by the choir, and Massrs. George Lubke, and Charles H. Spear contributed two exquisite violin solos.

At the conclusion of the musical programme a presentation speech was made by Mr. J. A. J. Schultz, the oldest member and the founder of the church in this city. It was a beautiful tribute to the pastor, dwelling upon the warm affection and high esteem in which both the pastor and his excellent and worthy helpmeet are held by the members of St. Mark's Lutheran Church.

AT FIE CLOSE OF THE SPECH an appropriate souvenir of the sliver wedding ganniversary, a large solid sliver bowl filled with sliver dollars, was presented to the pastor, who read in reply to the presentation speech a pleasing and somewhat humorous account of the life history of himself and family during the past twenty-five years, closing with tender expressions of affection and esteem for the noble people whom it is his privilege to serve. The address was received with loud and prolonged appliause.

whom it is his privilege to serve. The address was received with loud and prolonged applause.

Great credit is due to the ladies of the church who first conceived and planned the celebration and carried it out so effectively. The pariots of the church were tastefully decorated with groups of plants, the western wail wainscoted with flowers to the ceiling, and upon a low dals in front with stands of flowers on either side ast the pastor and his wife surrounded by his family, of which there are five children, two of them grown. The supper table, served by Pechman for 500 guests, was a marvel of beauty in its rich floral decorations. The worthy pastor and his wife received besides a great many other beautiful and valuable presents in silverware from the individual members of his congregation, to which may be added the gift of a horse, harness and phæton, through the thoughtful kindness of Mr. Wm. Bosbyshell, a recent addition to St. Mark's. The horse is described as doelle, a thoroughly orthodox animal, majestic in carriage and fleet of foot, and the Reverned Doctor warns any of his friends who take pride in their blooded stook, who have a mind to give him a brush, to think twice before they make the venture, as he has the reputation in matters of greater interest of "driving'like a Johu." He values, however, more highly than any personal gift, the Easter offering to the church of almost $5,500, which about wipes out its indebtedness.
